

CoinRex Litepaper v2.0

CoinRex Litepaper

A crypto review platform where users earn rewards for proof-backed reviews, and developers build public trust through transparency and community validation.

Introduction

What is CoinRex and who is it for?

CoinRex is a crypto review and trust platform built for two main audiences:

- | | |
|--|---|
|  Users / Reviewers | — People who use crypto projects and want to share their experience while earning rewards |
|  Developers / Project Owners | — Teams building crypto projects who want public feedback and credibility |

CoinRex exists to make crypto project trust more transparent, more review-driven, and less dependent on hype alone. It combines project discovery, proof-backed reviews, reward earning, and task-based user progression into one unified ecosystem.

Problem Statement

The challenges facing the crypto ecosystem today

Scams vs Real Projects

Crypto users don't know which projects are real and which are scams. There's no reliable way to verify legitimacy.

Fake & Paid Reviews

Reviews are often fake, paid, or unverifiable. Users cannot trust what they read on most platforms.

No Rewards for Honesty

No platform rewards honest reviewers for their valuable contributions to the community.

No Centralized Feedback Hub

Developers lack a centralized place to receive genuine public feedback about their projects.

Marketing-Driven Trust

Trust signals are marketing-driven, not community-driven. Real user experiences are hard to find.

The CoinRex Solution

How we solve the trust problem in crypto

Proof-Backed Reviews

Users submit reviews backed by proof — transaction hashes, wallet balances, and screenshots — making every review verifiable.

Quality Moderation

All reviews go through moderation to ensure quality, authenticity, and relevance before being published.

$REX Rewards

Users earn $REX rewards for valuable contributions — writing reviews, completing tasks, and referring others.

Developer Listings

Developers can list their projects and receive visible, public feedback from real users.

Transparent Trust

Trust becomes transparent and verifiable through public review activity, proof, and community participation.
